MOTION CARRIED

Commissioner Cielenski Reported:

- * Winter is here. All is going well. They have plenty of salt.
- * They are doing in house repairs and cleaning.
- * The Boom Mower has to be replaced. It may be more cost effective to purchase a used mower.
- * Residents are encouraged to call with any weather related issues

Clerk Rumchak asked if the issue with the resident on McGregor has been taken care of.

Commissioner Cielenski it has not been taken care of but he is working on a resolution to the issue.

Clerk Rumchak asked about the status of the Smith Road Bridge. Commissioner Cielenski said through a review process the bridge repair made the top of the list for funding for the Smith Road Bridge project. It is a two or three year phase. The next phase is for engineers to draw up plans. Rumchak asked if it will be a 2016 project. Cielenski said he does not have a time frame yet. The phases need to be completed and approved before a date can be determined.

Supervisor Alberico announced a road closure on route 171/State Street from New Avenue to 151st street at 10:30 PM tonight to repair a water line.

On a Motion of Boyce seconded by Batusich to adjourn the meeting at 7:14 PM.
