Commissioner's Report-

- The snow removal equipment has been removed from the Highway Department vehicles.
- The Highway Department employees have been busy working on culverts, patching the road and repairing water main breaks.
- Commissioner Cielenski disclosed that branch pick up and chipping will begin this Thursday and Friday until September. Please see the Township newsletter for instructions on how the branches should be placed on the roadside edge.
- There are brick catch basins in Bonnie Brae that are collapsing and in need of repair. The Highway Department will be restoring these basins a section at a time.
- Commissioner Cielenski stated that he will be receiving bids to replace a large culvert located by McGilvary Drive.
- Commissioner Cielenski asked residents to inform the Highway Department if a street light is not working so he may contact ComEd to have it restored. He was also informed that ComEd will eventually be converting the street light bulbs to LED bulbs.

Supervisor Alberico announced that the Highway Department Ordinance No. 2018-2 (2018/2019 Budget and Appropriation) was approved during the Public Hearing at 6:00 PM.

MOTION CARRIED

On a Motion of Delaney, seconded by Boyce to adjourn the meeting at 6:36 PM.
